Such things have happened before, and history--even of drugs--repeats itself. A comparison of Moller s oil with the best samples of American manufacture, is rather against than in favor of it. It is very bright, but not so sweet --so free from all objectionable fish odor and taste, as that made by our first class housesWhen we add that it is sold at nearly double the price of the actually superior native article, we think it scarcely needful to suggest that it is not quite fair to the patient, to make him play the unpatriotic part of purchasing an inferior foreign article at a high price, while a much smaller outlay will command an every way more desirable product of home industry. PROFESSIONAL ITEMS. Admiral Fabbaout, in a letter to the Secretary of the Navy, dated February 11th, advocates the appointment of ten medical directors, with the assimilated rank of Captain, to be placed in charge of hospitals and asylums. He further adds: --In the beginning of this contest, I felt desirous to do justice to the merits of such staff officers as had served in my command, and whom I knew had been equally exposed to the dangers incident to the profession, and hence when Surgeon Palmer appealed to me to know if I had any objection to a certain bill which provided for a higher grade for the older officers, I readily answered in the negative,...
