Subterranean humanoids, existing since the dawn of man, arose from the belly of the planet. Humanity was unprepared. Then she meets Jason- a father mourning the loss of his son, masking his pain with bravado and charm. Hes strong, despite his sadness, and love re-grows within him. Weeks pass and Jasons singular desire becomes the continued safety of Elise and her daughters. Bloody fights with beasts define the survival-road the companions travel. Even a few moments of safety and relaxation elude the group; time and time again, Elise must kiss her children goodbye, just in case tomorrow never arrives. Against all odds, they reach a government safe zone. Even there, Elise finds that theres no rest for the weary. Doctors OToole and Peters have been studying the beasts under lock and key, trying to find an answer, but the doctors arent interested in saving humanity.
