Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Reorganisation of Industry Papers, Vol. 3 An economist is expected, I imagine, to be chiefly interested in the economic aspect of social events, and in the economic wreckage wrought by the war he has a subject to his hand. But I at least wish to say - I will not begin a discussion on these matters without saying - that the economic wreckage now going forward, immense and unprecedented though it be, is to my mind trivial and insignificant in comparison with the human and moral wreckage - the mangled bodies of men, the shattered fabric of ideals - with which it is so fatally accompanied. It is not the business of this Conference to discuss these things, and I do not propose to discuss them. But it is not right that we should come to debate our lesser economic problems without a memory and a word for their terrible setting of blood. The principal topic which I wish to put before you for discussion is the probable after-effect of the war upon the...
